1. Introduction

The RBI Master Circular on Customer Service in Banks dated July 1, 2015 in clause 2.1.1 requires the Customer Service Committee of the Board to formulate a Comprehensive Deposit Policy.

Aditya Birla Idea Payments Bank (hereinafter referred to as “the Payments Bank”), in furtherance to the objectives it has been set for, shall primarily undertake basic banking activities of acceptance of demand deposits and provision of payments and remittance services.

This Policy outlines the guiding principles in respect of formulation of the deposit products offered by the Payments Bank and the terms and conditions governing the conduct of the account.

While adopting this Policy, the Payments Bank reiterates its commitments to individual customers outlined in Bankers' Fair Practice Code of Indian Banks' Association and applicable regulatory requirements.

2. Objectives of the Policy

The key objectives of this Policy are as under:

- Provide greater transparency in dealing with individual customers, small depositors, etc. and create awareness among customers of their rights with regards to deposit accounts
- Lay down the framework on the types of deposits offered by the Payments Bank and operations permitted in these deposits
- Disseminate information with regard to various aspects of acceptance of deposits from the members of the public, conduct and operations of various deposits accounts, payment of interest on various deposit accounts wherever applicable, closure of deposit accounts, method of disposal of deposits of deceased depositors, etc., for the benefit of customers
- Ensure that the customer will get services they are rightfully entitled to receive without demand
- Institutionalize a mechanism for disposal of deposits in case of death of the depositor(s).

3. Applicability

This Policy shall be applicable to all its employees and officers, Business Correspondent agents/sub-agents across all branches/business segments and will be placed on the website of the Payments Bank.

This Policy shall be applicable to all deposits offered/accepted or proposed to be offered/accepted by the Payments Bank and lays down a framework for accepting, operations, servicing and closure of all deposits held with the Payments Bank.

4. Governance Structure

The Payments Bank shall have the following governance structure for the approval and implementation of this policy.

Customer Service Committee

The Customer Service Committee is responsible to oversee the implementation of service initiatives and customers compensation across the Payments Bank. The Committee meets once each quarter and formulates policies on customer service, customer experience and customer compensation, assesses the customer service governance structure and suggests improvements to the quality of Customer Services based on inputs from within the Payments Bank and from customers of the Payments Bank.

The Customer Service Committee shall be responsible to oversee the implementation of this Policy and procedures made thereunder and report to the Board as required.

Product Approval Committee

The Committee shall approve any new product or product variant which forms part of the Policy in alignment with regulatory requirements. The Committee shall approve such products keeping in view the suitability and appropriateness of the customers for such products.

Head of Products

The Head of Products shall prepare the Comprehensive Deposit Policy in consultation with the Risk & Compliance, Operations and IT Departments which shall then be put forward to the Customer Service Committee and thereafter to the Board for approval. This policy shall seek to cover the broad types of deposits and shall not deal with each individual product/product variant. The Head of Products shall ensure the review of the Policy on an annual basis. Any product/product variant in alignment with the Policy shall be approved by the Product Approval Committee.

5. Types of Deposit Accounts

The Payments Bank may choose to offer the following types of deposit products:

5.1 Savings Account

Savings Account means a form of interest bearing demand deposit which is a deposit account whether designated as “Savings Account”, “Savings Bank Account”, “Savings Deposit Account” or other account.

 - incentives granted to staff members as approved by RBI from time to time.
- Launch prize/lottery/free trips (in India and/or abroad), etc. oriented deposit mobilisation schemes including online remittance schemes
- Accept deposits from/at the instance of private financiers or unincorporated bodies under any arrangement which provides for either issue of deposit receipt/s favouring client/s of private financiers or giving of an authority by power of attorney, nomination or other-wise, for such clients receiving such deposits on maturity.
- Open savings accounts in the name of Government departments/ bodies depending upon budgetary allocations for performance of their functions/Municipal Corporations or Municipal Committees/Panchayat Samitis/State Housing Boards/Water and Sewerage/ Drainage Boards/State Text Book Publishing Corporations/Societies/ Metropolitan Development Authority/State/District Level Housing Co-operative Societies, etc. or any political party or any trading/business or professional concern, whether such concern is a proprietary or a partnership firm or a company or an association. The above prohibition will not apply in the case of organisations/agencies listed in Annex 1.

8. Dormant/ Unclaimed Deposits/Inoperative Accounts

A savings as well as current account, which is not operated for a period of one year is termed as an inoperative account. If an account is not operated for a period of two years, would be treated as a dormant account. The depositor can request the Payments Bank to activate the account for operating it.

The Payments Bank shall conduct an annual review of accounts in which there are no customer induced transactions including credits or debits other than levy of service charges of credit of interest, for the last one year. The Payments Bank shall send letters to the customers advising them to transact in the account, failing which the account would be classified as dormant if there are no transactions for the succeeding two years. If the letters are returned undelivered, they may immediately be put on enquiry to find out the whereabouts of customers or their legal heirs in case they are deceased.

In case the account has turned dormant due to shift of address of the customer, the branch officials/ call centre shall assist the customer in transferring the account to any branch which is within the proximity of the customer. The branch officials shall try to contact any other persons related to the customer such as introducer, employer or any other persons whose contact details are available with the Payments Bank.

The Payments Bank shall not levy any charges for activation of the accounts. The Payments Bank shall credit the interest on savings bank accounts on regular basis whether the account is operative or not.

Operation in such accounts may be allowed after due diligence as per risk category of the customer. Due diligence would mean ensuring genuineness of the transaction, verification of the identity etc.

9. Closure of Account

The Payments Bank shall close the accounts either based on written instruction from the customer or suo moto by the Payments Bank, where necessary, in line with the / Customer Service Policy and the KYC/AML Policy of the Payments Bank.

The Payments Bank shall close the current/savings account upon customer's request within 3 working days of receiving instructions, subject to the customer completing all formalities and submitting all required documents.

10. Customer Confidentiality

The Payments Bank shall maintain complete confidentiality of the customers' information and shall not disclose details/particulars of the customer's account to a third person or party. The Payments Bank shall not share any such information for the purposes of cross-selling. In certain exceptions, the Payments Bank shall share the customer information:

- Where disclosure is under compulsion of law
- Where there is duty to the public to disclose
- Where interest of bank requires disclosure and
- Where the disclosure is made with the express or implied consent of the customer.

The Payments Bank shall obtain necessary information from the customer in order to ascertain the identity of the customer. Any additional information sought by the Payments Bank shall only be on a voluntary basis and the Payments Bank official shall explain to the customer the reasons on why such information is necessary/required.

11. Settlement of Dues

11.1 Deceased depositors

Accounts with survivor/nominee clause

In the case of deposit accounts where the depositors had utilized the nomination facility and made a valid nomination, the Payments Bank shall make the payment of the balance in the deposit account to the survivor(s) and the nominee of the deceased deposit account holder jointly: However, if the joint account holders had given mandate for disposal of the balance in the account in the forms such as either or survivor, former/latter or survivor, anyone of survivors or survivor, the payment will be made as per the mandate to avoid delays in production of legal papers by the heirs of the deceased account holder.

The Payments Bank shall exercise due care and caution in establishing the identity of the survivor(s)/nominee and the fact of death of the account holder, through appropriate documentary evidence. The Payments Bank shall desist from insisting on production of succession certificate, letter of administration or probate, etc., or obtain any bond of indemnity or surety from the survivor(s)/nominee, irrespective of the amount standing to the credit of the deceased account holder.

The Payments Bank shall confirm that there is no order from the competent court restraining the Payments Bank from making the payment from the account of the deceased. The Payments Bank shall inform the survivor(s)/ nominee that he/she would be receiving the payment from the Payments Bank as a trustee of the legal heirs of the deceased depositor and that such payment to him shall not affect the right or claim which any person may have against the survivor(s) / nominee.

Accounts without the survivor/ nominee clause

In case where the deceased depositor had not made any nomination or for the accounts other than those styled as "Either or Survivor" (such as single or jointly operated accounts), the Payments Bank shall keeping in view their risk management systems, fix a minimum threshold limit, for the balance in the account of the deceased depositors, up to which claims in respect of the deceased depositors could be settled without insisting on production of any documentation other than a letter of indemnity.

Treatment of flows in the name of the deceased depositor

The Payments Bank, if authorized by the survivor(s)/ nominee of a deceased account holder, shall open an account styled as 'Estate of Shri _____, the Deceased' where all the pipeline flows in the name of the deceased account holder could be allowed to be credited, provided no withdrawals are made.

Alternatively, the Payments Bank, if authorized by the survivor(s)/ nominee, shall return the pipeline flows to the remitter with the remark "Account holder deceased" and shall intimate the survivor(s) / nominee accordingly.

Payment of interest in case of death of depositor

In the case of balances lying in current account standing in the name of a deceased individual depositor/ sole proprietorship concern, interest should be paid from the date of death of the depositor till the date of repayment to the claimant/s at the rate of interest applicable to savings deposit as on the date of payment.

Time limit for settlement claims

The Payments Bank shall settle the claims in respect of deceased depositors and release payments to survivor(s) / nominee(s) within a period not exceeding 15 days from the date of receipt of the claim subject to the production of proof of death of the depositor and suitable identification of the claim(s), to the Payments Bank's satisfaction.

The Payments Bank shall provide the claim forms on its Bank's website to facilitate timely settlement of deceased claims.

11.2 Missing persons

The Payments Bank shall settle the claims upto a limit as decided by the Payment Bank by survivors/ nominees in respect of persons missing for 7 years or more on production of an FIR for the same without a letter of indemnity in respect of the missing person. In respect of the claims above the limit as decided by the Payments Bank, a legal opinion should be taken and settle such claims as detailed in para 11.1 of this policy subject to production of evidence/ documentation of the missing person as deemed adequate by the Payments Bank.

12. Redressal of Complaints and Grievances

If the customer is unhappy or has any complaint regarding the products/ services offered to him/ her, the designated authority of the Payments Bank shall handle customer complaint/ grievances raised by depositors.

The Payments Bank shall display the names of the nodal officers for redressal of complaints/ grievances in the branch premises and internal set up for redressal of complaints shall be displayed on the Payments Bank's website. The branch officials, BC, CSP (Agents) shall be provided all required information regarding procedure for lodging the complaint. The customer's grievance shall be handled in the manner as elaborated in the Customer's Grievance Redressal Policy of the Payments Bank.

13. Reporting requirements

The Payments Bank shall, within 30 days after close of each calendar year submit a return in the prescribed form as included in the Regulatory Reporting Framework and Calendar of the Payments Bank, to RBI as at the end of each calendar year (i.e. 31st December) of all accounts in India which have not been operated upon for 10 years.

14. Record Keeping

The Payments Bank shall retain all customer records at least for a period of eight years from the date of the transaction so as to permit the reconstruction of the customer transaction. The Payments Bank shall also retain the KYC records of the customer at least for a period of eight years from the date of cessation of the relationship with the customer.

15. Policy Review and Updates

The policy shall be reviewed by the Board as and when required or at least annually for incorporating regulatory updates and changes, if any.
